

Dear Simran,

It is with great pleasure that I write to inform you that as a result of your outstanding academic credentials, strong application, and promise as a future thought leader, you have been admitted to The Graduate School (TGS) at Northwestern University and to the Computer Science: MS program for Fall 2020. My warmest congratulations to you on this significant achievement!

At The Graduate School, we are committed to making the experience of our students who pursue study toward their advanced degrees the very best by providing a plethora of opportunities to develop your academic skills and engage with our thriving intellectual community. Our school is one that values diverse backgrounds, approaches, and perspectives, which are essential ingredients for true academic excellence, and it is my hope that you will consider joining us and making your unique contributions here at Northwestern University. You can, of course, find out more about The Graduate School and the resources and services offered to graduate students on our TGS website.

Please render your admission decision by clicking the Complete Your Decision Form button located next to the Decision Letter. We will accept enrollment decisions until August 07, 2020 23:59:59 (Pacific Time) unless otherwise stated by your admitting program.

It is my sincere hope that I will soon be welcoming you in person to graduate study at Northwestern University.

My best!

Teresa K. Woodruff
Dean of The Graduate School and Associate Provost for Graduate Education
Northwestern University

Student Name: Simran Bharat Gadkari